Roads are but pathways — paved or not,
Yet roads will go places you never thought.
'Round any corner to friends and good cheer,
Over a mountain to places not near,
Along a small stream so pleasant to hear,
Down deep in a valley away from all fear,
Seeking new treasures year after year.
Roads will go places the wind never caught.
Roads will go places where dreams can be wrought.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1967 wishes to dedicate its Talisman to

in recognition of the many hours he has spent helping us both individually and as a class.

Among the many qualities that go into making a good teacher are patience and understanding, a concern for the individual student, and a good sense of humor. Henry LePage has all of these attributes. Along with his varied duties as a teacher, Mr. LePage spends many hours organizing and directing the Senior Play, which is the main source of funds for the Senior Ball. And somehow, with all his many responsibilities, Mr. LePage always seems to be able to find a few extra minutes to spend with a student who might have a question or problem.

Therefore, it is with much admiration and appreciation that we, the Class of 1967, dedicate our Talisman to Mr. Henry LePage, French teacher, play director, and friend.

MAYNARD C. ROBINSON
PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1967:

Congratulations! The entire staff of Rutland High School joins with me in extending to you best wishes for the days and years ahead.

Many of you have earned distinction through your accomplishments in the classroom, in Athletics, Art, Music, Dramatics, as members of the Red and White or Talisman Staffs, or through your participation on the Student Council, or in club activities. Many of you have been active in, and honored for your work in your Church, in Scouting, in 4H, or in the Grange. Others have learned the meaning of productive work by carrying on part-time jobs during the school year or full-time jobs during the summer vacation.

Not one of you has followed exactly the same route during the past three years, yet all of you have reached the common goal--graduation from high school. Now your paths will be still more divergent, though each of you will be traveling a road that you, your families, your teachers, and your friends hope will lead to a satisfying and useful life.

Whatever road you choose, not all of it will be smooth and straigl You will find rough spots, delays and detours. You may find the traff of competition heavy and fast, some of it deliberately neglecting to follow the rules. That is a part of traveling. That is life.

As you begin your new journey, you have the good wishes of all of us for a smooth start, a safe trip, and the rewards of your efforts as you travel on toward the goal which each of you has set for himself

Sincerely,

Maynard C. Robinson

MEMORIAL

"Gone, gone her smile, unless we can recall
Her friendly face beneath the lily-pall."
—Merrill Moore

It is true that Elizabeth B. Greene's smile is gone forever from our daily lives. But it is also true that this same smile will still live on for many of us through our fond memories of her.

As a librarian, Mrs. Greene gave both the teachers and students alike, a wealth of ability, a love of learning, and a hunger for knowledge. As a person, Mrs. Greene gave us a friendly face, a cheerful smile, and an ever ready helping hand.

The effects of Mrs. Greene's unending and never-tiring love and work will always be evident in the hearts and minds of the many of us who came to know and admire her.

Certainly these sentiments are felt not only by the Class of 1967, but also by all alumni and future graduating classes who knew Elizabeth B. Greene.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Graduation Day, 1967

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1967:

Once again it is my distinct pleasure to write a letter to the graduating class. The members of the Class of 1967 have made a distinguished record for themselves during the past three years at Rutland High School. Yours is a class of whom we are all very proud.

The theme of this year's Talisman is "roads", a very appropriate theme indeed. The pages of this fine yearbook describe a portion of the journey you have just completed down the road of learning. Your parents, teachers, and the entire staff of the school system have worked very hard to ensure that your trip would be a rewarding one.

Now you must continue on your journey. Your trip will take you down a road which never ends. You should always remember that education must be a life-long process. The explosion of knowledge and our expanding technology demand that you never cease your quest for information and education. The responsibility for continuing your education is now yours.

In the years just ahead you will be walking many different roads. Some of you will enter college, others will enter the business world, and still others may enter military service. We all hope you will take this opportunity to make your trip as rewarding as possible for your self, your community, and your country.

Congratulations on the journey which you have just completed, and good luck in your future travels.

Sincerely yours,

William A. Atkins, Jr.

EDITORS' NOTES

During three years of high school one passes over ever so many roads, many of which were forgotten months ago but many more of which will be remembered for years to come.

For many of you, some of the roads which you have already taken will lead to your future happiness. For others of you, the most important roads of life still lie in the future.

To help you relive many of those cherished high school moments, we, the editors of the 1967 Talisman, have attempted to compile as accurate and complete a history of the Class of 1967 as possible.

The piecing together of a yearbook is a long and often time-consuming process. But the end result and the work which we have done on the 1967 Talisman is one in which we are proud to have had a hand.

To the administration and faculty we extend our deepest gratitude for the many hours which they have spent with us these past three years.

Finally, we extend a heartfelt thanks to you, the Class of 1967. For without your help and the many hours which you have spent in ever so many projects, this book could never have been amassed.

Sincerely yours,
The Editors

As we graduate from Rutland High School, we are entering a mature and sophisticated world of educated men and machines. If we are to take a successful part in this world, we must put into practice the values and ideals which have been instilled in us during our youth.

Our education is perhaps the greatest asset of our youth. We cannot discard our three years of learning at Rutland High School. We must use this knowledge as the foundation of our future education. Education is not a terminal procedure but a continuous process because there is always more to learn. The world we are making for tomorrow is built on the education of today.

Now we have reached a point in life where "two roads diverge" before us. The time has come when we must decide which road we shall travel. I sincerely hope that each of us chooses the right road and travels it successfully. Some day you may look back upon your days in Rutland High as some of the most memorable moments in your lives.

On behalf of the Senior Class, I would like to express our deep appreciation to the faculty and administration of Rutland High School and to our parents. Their assistance and dedication have been invaluable to us.

Sincerely,

Glenn Morgan

President of the Class of 1967

THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th

On November 17, 18 and 19, the Class of 1967, under the direction of Mr. Henry LePage, presented the comedy-drama "The Night of January 16th" by Ayn Rand.

The setting of the play was a courtroom where Karen Andre, played by Cathy MacFarlane, was being tried for the murder of business tycoon Bjorn Faulkner, her former employer and lover. In the beginning of the play, in an attempt to save Faulkner from embezzlement charges, Miss Andre falsely admitted to having killed him. But when she found out that Faulkner is really dead, Miss Andre changed her story. The defendent then claimed that she did not push Faulkner out of the apartment building window as District Attorney Flint, played by Mike Rosenberg, tried to prove.

Miss Andre testified that Larry Regan, a notorious gangster played by Walter Liberty, brought the already dead gangster Lefty O'Toole to the apartment building on the night of the alleged murder. Faulkner then changed clothes with the dead man and Miss Andre pushed the would-be Faulkner off the roof.

Faulkner, dressed as O'Toole, was then to meet Regan in a secluded field where they had hidden an airplane for their escape to South America. When Regan arrived at the field, however, the plane was gone. Several months later, Regan found a wrecked plane and burned body which he supposed to be Faulkner.

Defense Attorney Stevens, played by Robert Tyndall, does his best in behalf of Karen Andre, but the final decision as to her guilt or innocence rests with the twelve members of the jury who were chosen at random from the audience at the beginning of each performance.

" . . And furthermore, if I don't win this case I'll take back the candy I gave you!"

"Don't play innocent with me!"

"And then you shot him dead."

"Now listen here sister! I've had enough of your lies!"

"I know your mother told you never to swear, but this is different!"

"Ugh! What a mess!"

Just made it — Good morning, Mr. Goshgarian.

It should go off about noon.

Those were the good old days.

I didn't mean to step on his foot.

Boy, would I like to get my hands on the guy who invented valences.

. . . and then there was the MSJ game.

The morning after the night before.

No, Santa's for little guys.

Well, he said we should be relaxed.

What do you mean the bell just rang and I'm late?

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1966-1967 Rutland High School Student Council played an active and integral part in student life.

The foundation was laid for a record collection in memory of Mrs. Greene. Several records were purchased, and it is hoped that future councils will continue this project.

The high schools of Rutland County had the opportunity to meet at The Friendship Dance, sponsored jointly by RHS and MSJ. Over 100 dollars was given to a local charitable organization as a result of this.

Other activities included a study of the RHS cafeteria situation, monthly selections of Junior Lion and student-of-the-month, and attendance at state and regional functions.

Officers for 1966-1967 were: Mike Rosenberg, president; Joe Marro, vice-president; Joan Burke, secretary; Andee Bishop, treasurer; and Dawn Wilson, who was elected treasurer following Andee Bishop's American Field Service selection.

MONITOR SQUAD

When traveling the road to success, one must become a leader. The monitors are chosen in their junior year on this basis of leadership and also on their ability to handle responsibilities. The main duty of the monitor squad, under faculty advisor Miss Katherine Moran, is to direct traffic in the halls between classes.

Dancing under an array of blue and white snowballs, Jan Smith was chosen queen of "Snowball", this year's annual Christmas Dance which is sponsored by the Monitor Squad. Included in the queen's court were Lynn Carpenter, Cathy MacFarlane, Sherry Jones, Charlise Jones, Virginia Childs, and Nancy Champney.

The officers for this year were Jeff Pulling, head monitor; Dorothy Hodgson, secretary; and Margie Kearton, treasurer.

GIRLS' and BOYS' STATE

Rutland High School's 14 delegates to the American Legion's annual Girls' and Boys' State programs played an active part in the model governments and other activities offered at each. Campaigning was fast and furious at both states and all representatives gained an excellent understanding of how politics and representative government work.

A road filled with character, scholarship, leadership, and service may lead a student to the National Honor Society. This year ten Seniors and twelve Juniors followed this road and were inducted into the Society in a ceremony conducted by the twelve present members.

BAND

Sometimes that road to the future may become long, hard, and tedious. But the students of Rutland High have marched along it with enthusiasm and spirit to the music of the band.

Under the direction of Robert Swanson and Robert Miller, the band has boosted school spirit at football games, and instilled a feeling of patriotism at local parades. During the winter, the band presented its annual Christmas concert and numerous instrumentalists participated in the annual Mount Royal Music Festival in Canada. As spring rolled around, the band, along with the chorus, held an exchange concert with Lawrence High School in Falmouth, Mass. Also, several members were chosn to participate in the All-State and All-New England Music Festivals.

Band members include:

Seniors — Jodee Bishop, Susan Caldwell, Calvin Dame, Thomas Field, Allen Gartner, Deborah Hall, Joyce Hubbard, Norman Kinney, Diane Lemmo, Donald Lemmo, Keith Shaw, Robert Tyndall.

CHORUS

How can we describe the roads to our future and that which surrounds them? Obviously by the beautiful phrases of eternal music as sung to us by the Rutland High Chorus.

At Christmas time, the chorus put on the play Amahl and the Night Vistors. Part of this program was sung for the Rotary Club at the Hotel Bardwell. Directed by Robert Miller and Robert Swanson, the chorus held an exchange concert with Lawrence High School in Falmouth, Mass. Several members also sang at the annual Mount Royal Music Festival in Canada. In addition, several chorus members were chosen to sing in the Vermont All-State Music Festival and the All New-England Music Festival.

Chorus members include:

Seniors — C. Dame, D. Spine, S. Granger, B. Bigelow, R. Sagi, L. Ellison, K. Welch, K. Butterfield, S. Sirjane, M. Stoops, L. Miner, N. Kinney, K. Shaw, R. Tyndall, N. Manney, S. Smith, J. Penn, L. Fredette, J. Icken, M. Hughes, N. Ball, S. Steele, E. Temple, N. Pratico, S. Leonard.

KEY CLUB

The road to that point where one attains personal satisfaction is traveled by one who does service to others. Such is the purpose of the Key Club: to make the student's life in Rutland High School and the citizen's daily living in the city of Rutland an easier task and a more enjoyable one. The Key Club reaches this destination by being of service intellectually and recreationally in its bookstore. The club also started off the students' social life with "Bewitched", Rutland High's first dance of the year, and kept the sports' fans informed with its basketball programs. Under the advisorship of faculty member Richard LeClair, Key Club also sponsored a vandalism assembly and Lincoln-Washington "College Bowl". Officers of 1966-67 were Robert Tyndall, Peter Louras, Hendrick Arnold, Carl Hinsman and Gerald Weiss.

I.R.C.

The International Relations Club, whose goal it is to promote a better understanding of world affairs, is under the direction of Mr. Leonard Nadeau, faculty advisor; and Allen Gartner, president.

The main project of the I.R.C. this year was an American Field Service weekend in December when foreign exchange students and their American brothers and sisters from all over Vermont came to Rutland. The members of the I.R.C. were given the opportunity to meet and talk with each A.F.S. student.

Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

G.A.A.

In today's world girls, as well as boys, must be physically fit. This, in part, is the goal of the Girls' Athletic Association.

G.A.A., under the advisorship of Mrs. Valerie McClellan, sponsors the cheerleaders as well as the girls' softball, basketball and ski teams. The organization also hosted fine tasting suppers in both the spring and the fall.

On Feb. 11, the G.A.A. held its annual Sadie Hawkins dance, this year titled "Cupid's Corner". School spirit is important in any school, and the G.A.A. played an important role in this area also, providing buses to several away football and basketball games and selling pennants at numerous Rutland High School home games.

The Girls' Athletic Association provides many girls with an opportunity to work on various committees, and in an even greater sense, to serve their school.

Officers for the 1966-67 year were: Joyce Hubbard, president; Vicky Stickney, vice-president; Jan Smith, secretary; and Andrea Burke, treasurer.

VARSITY CLUB

True sportsmanship and an understanding of the purposes and importance of the American ideal of athletics is cultivated by the Varsity Club. This organization epitomizes the importance of good physical condition and of healthy sporting spirit necessary for the trek along that long road to our future success.

The Varsity Club has contributed widely to the cause of athletics at Rutland High School by selling programs at football games, and ushering at basketball games. Probably the club's most significant achievement is the Code of Good Sportsmanship which sets rules for the behavior of both participants and spectators at athletic events and for an attitude towards the goal of sports.

Under the presidency of Glenn Morgan and faculty advisorship of Mr. Byrne, the Varsity Club has also made vital contributions towards the students' enjoyment and satisfaction in the school year by sponsoring a dance and by supervising the annual Rutland High School Talent Show.

MIMES

Upon the sudden death of Mrs. Elizabeth Greene, longtime faculty advisor to the Mimes, Mr. Henry LePage became the club's new advisor.

The main projects of the Mimes this year included attending a play presented by the Proctor Players, arranging a permanent room for costumes, and the drafting of a constitution for the club.

The members of the Mimes Club study all of the aspects of drama, including acting, directing, make-up, lighting, and stage setting.

Officers for the year were Suzanne Granger, president; Robin Fiske, vice-president; Carolyn Jehle, treasurer; Dale Spine, secretary; and Marjorie Dundas, make-up chairman.

ONE ACT PLAY

The road one travels when competing against others is often a most difficult and demanding one. After many hours of hard work, members of the cast; under the direction of Mr. Henry LePage, presented the play The Hungerers by William Saroyan at the district one act play contest held at Rutland High on March 13, 1967. Members of the cast included Ingvard Wilhelmsen, a writer; David Goodspeed, a young capitalist; Roberta Fiske, a young girl; Sue Granger, an old woman; and Greg Sharrow, a stagehand.

The Hungerers is a simple play about poor people. The ages and occupations of the people are unimportant, and the story could take place in any city at any time. Each character is searching for something more from life, both materialistically and spiritually. The audience soon realizes that because the characters are unable to find fulfillment in life a part of them "dies". Though this "death" does not involve the whole of a person, it is just as devastating as death in the normal sense of the word.

SUMMARY OF THE 1966 FOOTBALL SEASON

November 11th, 1966, marked a disappointing end to an exciting Raider grid season. Crosstown rival Mount St. Joseph upset the powerful Rutland eleven, 13-12, in a stunning come-from-behind effort.

A new opponent from the North, Bellows Free Academy, fell to the Raiders 39-21 in the lidlifter. Following losses to Bennington Catholic and Brattleboro, a hapless Mount Anthony Union team collapsed against the Redmen. The Rutland offense was outstanding, crushing the Patriots, 39-7.

Bellows Falls was determined, but the Raiders edged by 21-18. We invaded the North for the first time in years, defeating Burlington, 13-12. This game featured Rutland High School at its peak, and it remained in high spirits long enough to clip Springfield, 13-8. And then the 11th rolled around.

Congratulations to Senior Bill Minogue, Rutland's representative in the All-State first team selections, and to Seniors Glenn Morgan, Dave Goodspeed and Bob Bryon, and Junior Pete Welch, who were honored as All-League members.

"WE'RE NUMBER ONE"

Coach Jim Leamy's 1966-67 Red Raiders brought the Vermont Class L championship to Rutland High by virtue of a 47-45 upset win over Bennington Catholic in the state finals in Burlington.

Although the Redmen were regarded as contenders at the season's start, they lacked experience. A loss to Bellows Falls early in the campaign upset the Rutland applecart.

Following a defeat at the hands of Catholic High, the Raiders won 11 straight. The string was broken as Rutland again took it on the chin from the high-flying Sabers and dropped a heart-breaker to Springfield.

Nevertheless, Rutland won their post-season playdown over Brattleboro, edged Springfield in the quarter-finals and prepped for the big one by destroying St. Johnsbury Academy.

Seniors Jack Johnson and Captain Bob Pratt were the Rutland one-two scoring punch. Joe Paul was a threat on offense and defense, and Rod and Joe Phillips were magnificent off the glass. Al Olson and Barry Keefe provided great depth. Barry's big plays in the quarter-finals and finals are the type that fans in Springfield and Bennington won't soon forget.

An outstanding season gives Rutland the right to say, "We're number one".

The road of life is long and hard, and competition along that road plays a great part in one's future happiness and well-being.

For those boys who do not get a chance to participate in varsity or junior varsity basketball, but who enjoy playing, Rutland High offers the intramural league, or better-known "Hatchet League".

This year, under the supervision of Mr. James Given, approximately 55 boys divided into eight separate teams played basketball from January 3 through March 2.

Each team played seven games, and Team 1, composed of Mark Davis, Tom Williams, Ingvard Wilhelmsen, Mike Kovacs, Mike Lancour, Mike Shoenfeld and Jim Potter, won the league championship with a perfect 7-0 record.

After six games the ten top scorers were:

Name	Points
Mark Davis	150
Louie Lavin	135
Mike Kovacs	124
Pete Ryan	120
Dave Snow	102

Name	Points
Dave Frankiewicz	79
Jay Blanchard	75
Glenn Morgan	73
Bob Silva	67
Tom Williams	66

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Who's that stranger on the left?

"I think I could fire about a 100 today, wife."

Safety straps needed for Pratt's contacts, Coach?

The road is made long by curves and by hills;
The path will often be marred,
But the only way now is straight ahead,
For the road behind is barred.
So now you can only go on your way,
And try to reach the road's end,
For many new things are waiting for you—
Waiting around the bend.
Each turn of the road hides the future from view,
And each stone seems to beg you to wait.
Though the hill may be steep, you must hurry along,
For the days are now short; you cannot be late.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Back in September we editors, filled with hope, ambition, and much determination, set out on the road which, we hoped, would lead us to a completed 1967 Talisman. Needless to say, after many hours of hard work, many seemingly insurmountable crises, and much greatly needed encouragement from the sidelines, we have reached the end of the road. Though the job of producing the Talisman may have seemed overwhelming at times, it has been a lot of fun and an invaluable experience for us.

We could not have accomplished this alone, however, and we would now like to thank the many people who worked behind the scenes to help, encourage, and guide us since we first started our job. Because of their invaluable help with the creation of our year book, the editors of the 1967 Talisman wish to extend their deepest appreciation to the following people:

Mr. Harry Brusa, Talisman faculty advisor, who gave us the guidance, encouragement, and patience we needed to get us through each deadline with a minimum of problems.

Miss Perry and Mrs. Herbert for their assistance when we needed to use the facilities of the office.

Mr. Norm Porter, class photographer, for his co-operation and fine photography.

The Rutland Herald for the use of their photography facilities.

Mr. Tom Barton, our publishing company representative, for his help and advice in putting the finishing touches on the book.

The members of the Editorial Staff for their great help and patience.

The members of the Business Board without whose help the Talisman could never have made it as far as the publishers.

The Advertisers and Patrons for their financial support of and their interest in the Talisman.
